I. Major Responsibility:

The WWF-GEF project, Integrated Landscape Management to Secure Nepal’s Protected Areas and Critical Corridors Project is executed by the Ministry of Forests and Environment (MOFE), Government of Nepal. The project’s geographic scope is the Terai Arc Landscape (TAL), Nepal. The project seeks to achieve the following objective: to promote integrated landscape management to conserve globally significant forests and wildlife. Over the five year project period, the objective will be achieved through the implementation of four interconnected components, namely: 1) National capacity and enabling environment for cross-sectoral coordination to promote forest and landscape conservation 2) Integrated planning for protected area buffer zones and critical corridors in the TAL 3) Forest and human-wildlife conflict management for improved conservation of targeted protected area buffer zones and corridors in the TAL and 4) Knowledge management and monitoring and evaluation. Ultimately, the project will result in the reduction of the threats impacting the corridors and protected areas in the TAL, benefitting ecological integrity of these largely forested areas, the globally significant wildlife populations that they support, and the resilience of forest dwelling communities. The improved conservation and sustainable management of forest resources will result in habitat connectivity, increased carbon storage and sequestration and restoration of degraded habitats and continued delivery of ecosystem services that support local populations.

Under the direct supervision of the Project Manager, the Finance and Administration (F&A) Manager will be responsible to manage all financial and operational aspects of the Project including project budgeting, contracting, subrecipient monitoring and evaluations, financial tracking and reporting, and HR management support and administrative functions. As a key member of the Project Management Unit (PMU), F&A Manager will oversee the finance and administrative aspect of the project.
