Consultancy: Gender Based Violence (GBV) Training with WWF Community-based Projects in Solomon Islands

WWF-Pacific is looking to recruit a Consultant(s) to facilitate a training workshop for community facilitators and other community members to be fully capacitated to be able to resolve or address any likely GBV issues that may have some relations to WWF project activities. This training will form part of the training topics packaged for the Community Facilitators in WWF CBFM targeted communities.

Location:
Consultancy will be based in the Solomon Islands

Period of Consultancy: July 2022

Purpose and Scope:
The purpose of the Gender Based Violence training is to develop Community Facilitators’, and WWF staffs’ understanding of:

- The key concepts including Gender Based Violence, Gender Norms, Power relations, Child Abuse, Child Protection, Human trafficking, domestic violence, sexual violence and rape.
- The differences between Gender and Sex.
- What Gender Norms mean.
- What violence in relationship may entail.
- The causes, risk factors and effects of violence.
- The difference between GBV and Human Trafficking
- The laws relating to violence in the Solomon Islands and the penalties of offences of Domestic violence cases [Family Protection ACT (-PSN, PO), Penal Code, sexual offence (amendment) Act]

Terms of Reference
For more information on the Consultancy, the Terms of Reference can be downloaded from our website: www.wwfpacific.org

How to Apply?
Email applications are to be sent to: ppo.hr_recruit@wwfpacific.org with the subject line: “Consultancy: GBV Training” and should include the following:

1. Resume/CV with the name and contact details of two professional referees,
2. One-two page cover letter explaining how you meet the requirements of this role, and relevant qualifications with emphasis on responding to the details of the Terms of Reference.

Deadline for applications: Thursday 29th June, 2022

WWF is an equal opportunity employer and committed to having a diverse workforce.